

Prof. Alessandro Capra

University of Modena and Reggio Emilia (UNIMORE)

Alessandro Capra is Full Professor of Geomatics since 2002 and pertaining at DIF department of University of Modena and Reggio Emilia (UNIMORE).

He was born the 05/05/1961 in Bologna. He got his Classical high school diploma in 1980 and his master's degree in mining engineering on 1987.

He is coordinator of Italian geodetic observatory of PNRA (Italian Research Program on Antarctica) since 1998. He was Chief Officer of SCAR (Scientific Committee on Antarctic Research) Geosciences Standing Group from 2004 to 2012 and Director of DIASS department of Polytechnic of Bari from 2003 to 2005.

He is Editor-in-chief of Applied geomatics (Springer Editor) since 2008. He was President of SIFET (Italian Society of Photogrammetry and Surveying) from 2010 to 2014, Director of DIMEC Department (UNIMORE) from 2010 to 2012 and Director of DIF Department of UNIMORE from 2012 to 2018.

He is president of Association China Project since 2019 and delegate for Internationalization of UNIMORE since November 2019.

Alessandro Capra is author and co-author of 235 scientific publications, and he presented memories at national and international symposia. He has been principal Investigator of research projects at national and international level and responsible of applied research activities with public and private bodies. He has also performed professional activities and advising for private companies and public entities for more than thirty years.